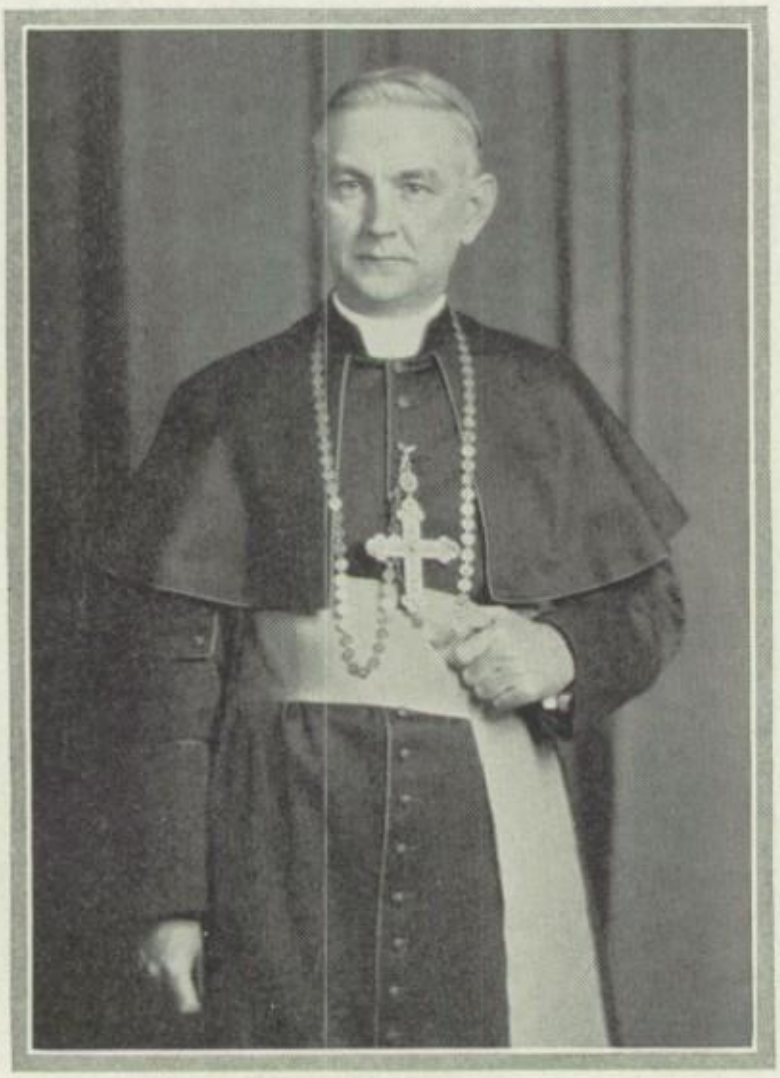
MESSMER
HIGH SCHOOL
MILWAUKEE, WIS.

NINETEEN HUNDRED AND THIRTY SEVEN

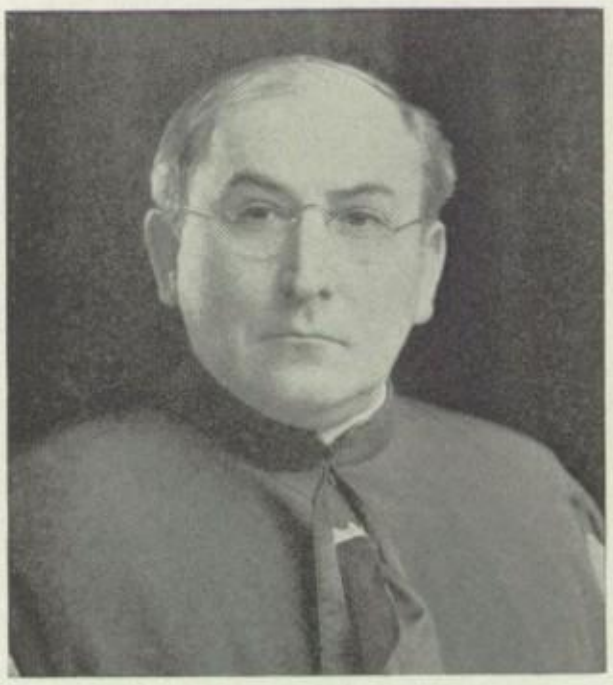


HIS EXCELLENCY SAMUEL A. STRITCH
ARCHBISHOP OF MILWAUKEE

The success and joy which Messmer High School has experienced in past years might well be attributed to the loving attitude and paternal solicitude of our beloved Archbishop.

Catholic education, and especially Messmer High School, feels a great loss with the death of Rt. Rev. Msgr. Barbian. During the period he worked with us, we found him a kindly leader, a gracious superintendent, and a good friend.

In Memoriam



Rt. Rev. Msgr. J. F. Barbian

FOREWORD

If all the vivid, joyful experiences... hours of work and play... the many little happinesses... the chums of high school days... moments brimming over with activity... be reawakened in our minds, should the memories somewhat fade..."THE CAPITOL" will have become all we strove to make it...'a book of memories.'

Bottom Row: Stoklasa, Van Male, Schneck, Lueders, Literski.

The reserves waded through a difficult schedule with no more than a fair record, but at times, showed signs of latent ability that may prove valuable to future varsity teams. The season gave the 'B' men much needed experience.

INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL CHAMPIONS

Top Row: Meyer, Moroder, Hemmerich, Rogge, Betner, Leonard.
Bottom Row: Schneck, Literski, Kosick, Jelacic.

Piling up one one-sided victory after another in the early rounds of the school tourney, the juniors from 114 met and toppled the freshman champions from 109 in the finals. They became the ninth possessors of the George W. Carnachan plaque.

Recognition as one of the leading high school teams in the country for the period from 1934 to 1937 came to Coach Dermody's pucksters in the form of the Tom Lieb Hockey Award, presented by the Athletic Director of Loyola University, Pacific Coast hockey center and Dermody's alma mater. The 1936-'37 team won five, lost four, and tied one, and placed two men, Vince Karpowitz and Al Karolczek, on a coaches' all-city team.

ATHLETICS

BOXING

Barnett, Jelacic, Wamser, Leonard, Draeger, Shanahan, Struck, Toschik, Muench, Burkhardt.

The usual large crowds witnessed three shows in the third annual school boxing meet, in which ten champions were crowned. By virtue of the interesting cards and unusual talent presented, Messmer is fast becoming widely known as a local boxing center.

TENNIS

Bottom Row: Zandt, Buzza, Kuemmel, Betner, Stenz.

Inclement early season weather kept the netters off of practice courts and handicapped them in opening matches, but with increasing experience Messmer's racqueteers gave a good account of themselves in interscholastic competition.

FENCING TEAM

Although no interscholastic matches were fought, the school duelists met daily in intrasquad contests. The sport, in its third year, had a turnout of 12, the largest in its short history. The clash of foils and spirited signals of the swordsmen that rang from their practice space in the offstage corridor in the auditorium were ample indication of the interest now being taken in the sport.

GOLF TEAM

The golf team was organized late in the school year by Coach Dermody and a few devotees of the sport. Although not many matches were played, the squad had an enjoyable time playing among themselves.

The team was composed of boys from all four classes and promises great things for next year. Of this year's team Charles Stark, Joe Austrup, Bob Miller, Ben Mayer, and Bob Shoemaker are graduating. While these boys formed the backbone of the 1937 squad there are still some good golfers returning next year.

Golf is one of the newer sports inaugurated at Messmer. While a large turnout responded to Coach Dermody's announcement a still larger crowd is expected to come out next year. It is one of the fastest growing sports ever introduced.

The team was composed of the following: Bob Shoemaker, Charles Stark, Harold Eckl, Jimmy Lawrie, Joe Austrup, Bob Miller, Bill Ward, Ray Considine, Richard Shwoegler, Ben Mayer.

Through the untiring work of the officers, the girls' athletic department has had a very successful year.

ATHLETICS

SOCCER TEAM, SENIOR CHAMPIONS

This sport, introduced just three years ago, rapidly gained favor with the girls, becoming the most important minor sport. This year the sophomores came through to defeat the juniors in a nip-and-tuck battle for the championship.
